

Professional Curriculum Vitae Dr. Luis Rico
Didactics of Mathematics Department
University of Granada, Spain

- B. Sc., M. Sc. (1968), Ph. D. (1986). University of Granada.
- Professor of Didactic of Mathematics at the University of Granada (Spain) since 1992.
- Head of the Didactic of Mathematics Department at the University of Granada.
- Founder of the current Spanish research movement in Mathematics Education and first President of the Spanish Society for the Research on Mathematics Education.
- University of Granada Vice-Chancellor, responsible of programs planning, teaching quality and educational assessment, from 2001 to 2007.
- Subjects of research: “Design, Development and Assessment of Curriculum of Mathematics”, “Professional Knowledge of the Teacher of Mathematics”, “Quality and assessment of training programs”, “Research and quality indicators in Mathematics Education”, “History of Mathematics and Mathematics Education” and “Numerical Thinking”.
- Ph. D. adviser in Didactic of Mathematics of sixteen students.
- Editor of three different mathematics education Spanish publications, with more than 90 books published as editor.
- Coordinator over eighteen research projects in Mathematics Education, sponsored by regional, national or European government or foundations.
- Coordinator of the network “Mathematics Education Research Training for Latin American countries” of the European Union Alfa Program, since 1995 to 2000.
- Large number of research visits, of diverse length, at many different Latin- American or European universities and research centers, often with participation at the different Seminars and Colloquia.
- Member of the Mathematics Expert Group of the Study “Programme for International Student Assessment” (PISA) promoted by the Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD), since 2000 to 2004.
- Spanish National Research Coordinator of the Teacher Education Study of Mathematics (TEDS-M), promoted by the International Educational Achievement (IEA), since 2006.
- President of the National Spanish ICMI sub-commission and member of the Mathematics Spanish Committee.
- Member of the Sciences Academy of Granada (Spain) since 1999.
- Remarkable experience as referee for:
 - -Ph. D. thesis,
 - -University positions,
 - -Research centers and universities (evaluation of quality)
 - -Research projects
 - -Research papersin several different European and American countries
- Author of over one hundred and fifty published scientific papers and over two hundred scientific communications in different international journals and conferences

- Large experience as responsible (General Chair, Program Chair, Local Organization, etc.) of many different international Conferences all over the world.
- Member of several research and professional societies on Mathematics and Mathematics Education.

